

CCC

2008-2009 highlights

Fall 2008

Total Number of Programs: 35

Total Program Attendance: 2,610

Resource Center Attendance and Use: 3,177 student visits

Winter 2009

Total Number of Programs: 35

Total Program Attendance: 3,410

Resource Center Attendance and Use: 4,067 student visits

Spring 2009

Total Number of Programs: 53

Total Program Attendance: 7,610

Resource Center Attendance and Use: 3,418 student visits

2008-2009 Academic Year Totals

Total Number of Programs: 123

Total Number of Student Contacts (Program and Center Attendance): 24,292

General Highlights

- Founding of the Gender & Sexuality Resource Center (originally founded as the Women's Resource Center in 1976) in Fall 2008, addressing the emotional, social, and educational needs of women, men, the LGBT community, and allies.
- Addition of full-time Coordinator, Gender & Sexuality Resource Center, to provide additional guidance, support, and counseling/referral services for student issues.
- S.T.A.R.S. (Students Taking Action For Retention and Success) Mentor program operating at full capacity: 25 mentors; 45 mentees; 12 workshops;
- Program Highlights include:
  - Use of U-SU Theatre for The Cotton Club Review (11/20/08), Yellow Rage (2/24/09), Panza Monologues (2/27/09), Border Stories (5/8/09) productions.
  - Out, Gay, and Formerly in the NBA: An Evening with John Amaechi, Tuesday, October 7.
  - The Dirty Girls Social Club: An Evening with Alisa Valdes-Rodriguez, Tuesday, October 21.
  - Stories From The Urban Campfire: Two Days With Pearl Cleage, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 3 and 4, 2009. (classroom visit, theatre workshop, and Women's History Monty keynote address)
  - Day of Silence: Freeze The Moment For Lawrence King, Friday, April 17 and Monday, April 20, 2009.
  - Discussion Groups: Womyn On Top and Real Men Don't Talk (spring 2009).