

The HAUS: Queer & Trans Mentorship Program

The goal of The HAUS: Queer & Trans Mentorship Program is to connect Cal State LA LGBTQQIA+ (Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Questioning, Intersex, Asexual) student-scholars who are new to Cal State LA and/or the queer community with mentors who can provide them with academic, personal, and social support.

The basic expectations of The HAUS:

- ❖ 2 semester commitment
- ❖ Participate in The HAUS meetups and socials
- ❖ Submit monthly reflections pertaining to the experience

A Note on Confidentiality:

Out of respect for those who may not be out/open about their identities for different reasons, we want to stress confidentiality when joining this program. Participant's involvement with The HAUS will not be disclosed to anyone besides the mentor/mentee, unless participants wish otherwise. We ask for sensitivity regarding confidentiality; please be respectful of participant's identifying information.

Anyone looking to make connections is encouraged to apply. It's going to be lots of fun!

TL; DR / In Summary

The HAUS is meant to be a mutual support network for new and returning Cal State LA student-scholars in the LGBTQQIA+ community.
