1 – 2:30 pm, Locations TBD, U-SU at Cal State LA

Student Participant Application

Interested in leadership for social justice, but do not know where to begin? Join the Cross Cultural Centers for a five-week series of workshops for new and seasoned student leaders to explore self-identity, learn concepts, network, and develop skills necessary to envision a world that is better and more socially just.

Presented by: Cross Cultural Centers, University-Student Union, and student fees.

Please email application to Frederick Smith at FSmith@calstatela.edu with LEADERSHIP FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE in the subject line by 5 pm Friday, September 15, 2017 or return in hard copy to the Cross Cultural Centers, Room 206, University-Student Union. You will be notified of your selection status no later than Friday, September 22, 2017.

CCC 101: Leadership for Social Justice

Thank you for your interest in CCC 101: Leadership for Social Justice! The beauty of the program is that it is simple: students, faculty, and staff coming together to talk, listen, and learn about one another and social justice for five consecutive Friday afternoons, 1 – 2:30 pm. If selected as a participant, you will take an active role in activities that will support and challenge you in this validating environment. Everyone is welcome to apply for this program and it will bring together a broad range of identities, perspectives, and experiences to dialogue across differences. Please Note: The program will take place at Cal State LA within the University-Student Union. We can accommodate 25 - 30 participants in the program series.
