Submit the 2015 Officer Information Form at least once a year. The 2016 Officer Information Form will be available at the start of the fall quarter. All student organizations must submit their information/signatures on the updated form.

The 2014 OFFICER INFORMATION FORMS cannot be added to CSI's distribution list so any information disseminated will be sent out to your student organization advisor. We're just as committed to the success of your group as we are to your success as an advisor. When advisors soar, their groups soar with them! Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact CSI. As always, please know that you can contact CSI for any questions you might encounter as we work with you in the upcoming academic year. In this issue you'll find:

1. Purpose and Goals
2. Reports on past and continuing projects
3. Organization history
4. Previous event files and forms
5. Leadership resources and handouts
6. Student Organization Handbook
7. Copy of the budget
8. Navigation tools for how to operate within University guidelines

Congratulations to all award nominees and recipients! The 2014 Student Leader Awards honored outstanding student organization officers and advisors. The Spring Quarter Meeting/Retreat was held on March 23rd in the University Union. The 2015 Student Leader Awards recognized the many activities, accomplishments, and overall success and to allow for the transition of new leadership from continuing students who meet the eligibility requirements.

If you are a new leader this year, it is important to understand the responsibilities and requirements of your position. To address any concerns or issues you may have, please contact your student organization advisor. The Student Organization Advisor can provide guidance and support throughout the academic year.

As an advisor, you play a crucial role in the success of your student organization. Your leadership and guidance can have a significant impact on the development and growth of your organization. In this issue, we will focus on the importance of leadership and provide resources to support your efforts.
