ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
UNIVERSITY-STUDENT UNION BOARD,
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES

I

The name of this Corporation is:

UNIVERSITY-STUDENT UNION BOARD,
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES

II

The UNIVERSITY-STUDENT UNION BOARD, CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY,
LOS ANGELES, hereinafter called the "Corporation," shall conduct its operations in conformity with regulations established by the Trustees of The California State University and Colleges and approved by the Director of Finance as required by the California Education Code, Section 89900.

III

This Corporation shall be operated as an integral part of the educational programs of the California State University, Los Angeles, hereinafter called the "University," as required by the California Administrative Code, Title V, Section 42401; and its operations shall be integrated with University operations and administered or supervised by the President of the University as required by the California Administrative Code, Title V, Section 42601(c).

IV

The purposes for which this Corporation is formed are:

(1) The specific and primary purpose of this Corporation is to operate the University Student Union at California State University, Los Angeles, as a student body center for the benefit of students, faculty, staff and alumni in order to promote and assist the educational program of the University or such institution as shall succeed to the properties and functions of said University and to apply the funds and properties coming into its hands toward furthering the educational program carried on or approved by the administrative officers of the University. This Corporation shall not carry on any activities not approved by the administrative officers of the University.

(2) This Corporation shall not make personal loans of a non-scholarship nature, except that loans to faculty members or employees may be made when such loans are specifically authorized by a trust instrument under which the funds were received, as required by the California Administrative Code, Title V, Section 42403(c)(2).

(3) This Corporation shall never operate for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.

(4) Notwithstanding any of the above statements of purposes and powers, this Corporation shall not engage in activities which in themselves are not in furtherance of the charitable and educational purposes set forth in paragraph 1 of this Article IV.

V

This Corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purposes.

VI

This Corporation is not organized, nor shall it be operated, for pecuniary gain or profit, and does not contemplate the distribution of gains, profits or dividends to its members or to any private shareholder or individual. The property, assets, profits, and net income of this Corporation are irrevocably dedicated to the charitable purposes set forth in Article IV, and no part of the profits or net income of this Corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual except that this provision shall not be construed so as to prevent the payment to directors, officers or employees of reasonable compensation for services actually rendered to this Corporation.

Upon dissolution of this Corporation net assets other than trust funds shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit corporations organized and operated for the benefit of the California State University, Los Angeles, or the students or the students and faculty of that University, such corporation or corporations to be selected by the board of directors. Such nonprofit corporation or corporations must be qualified for federal income tax exemption under Sections 501(a) and 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and be organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for a combination of said purposes. In the alternative, upon dissolution of the Corporation, net assets other than trust funds shall be distributed to the California State University, Los Angeles.

If, upon dissolution, this Corporation holds any assets in trust, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the Superior Court of the county in which this Corporation's principal office is located upon petition therefor by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation. In no event shall any assets be distributed to any member, director, or officer of this Corporation.

VIII

The name and address in the State of California of this Corporation's initial agent for service of process is: Roger L. Rodzen, Executive Secretary, University-Student Union Board, California State University, Los Angeles, 5154 State University Drive, Los Angeles, California 90032.

IX

This Corporation shall have no members other than the persons constituting its Board of Directors. The persons constituting its Board of Directors shall, for the purpose of any statutory provision or rule of law relating to nonprofit corporations or otherwise, be taken to be the members of such Corporation and exercise all the rights and powers of members thereof. If a Director who is qualified for Board membership because he or she is a member of the University staff or faculty terminates his or her employment with the University, he or she shall cease to be a Director of this Corporation. The President of the University or his or her designated representative shall be a member of the Board of Directors of this Corporation in order to insure that this Corporation operates in conformity with the University policy as required by the California Administrative Code, Title V, Section 42404. This Article is not subject to amendment, change or alteration in any of its clauses or provisions by the Bylaws of the Corporation.

X

The number of Directors shall be as set forth in the Bylaws. The Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or obligations of this Corporation.

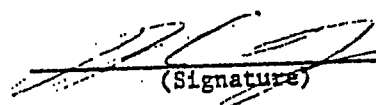

XI

The Articles of Incorporation of this Corporation shall not be amended except with the vote or written consent of three-fourths (3/4) of the total voting membership of the Board of Directors.

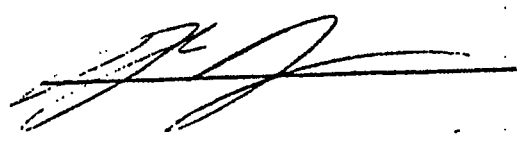

XII

The name of the existing unincorporated association now being incorporated by the filing of these Articles is the UNIVERSITY-STUDENT UNION BOARD, CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES.

CERTIFICATE OF AMENDMENT
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
University-Student Union Board
California State University, Los Angeles

JOHN C. LOPEZ AND DEBRA L. HAMMOND certify that:

1. They are the Chairperson and the Executive Secretary, respectively, of University-Student Union Board, California State University, Los Angeles, a California Corporation.
2. Article VII of the Articles of Incorporation of this Corporation is amended to read as follows:

Upon dissolution of this Corporation net assets other than trust funds shall be distributed to one or more nonprofit corporations organized and operated for the benefit of the California State University, Los Angeles, such corporation or corporations to be selected by the board of directors of this Corporation and approved by the President of the University and the Board of Trustees of the California State University. Such nonprofit corporation or corporations must be qualified for federal income tax exemption under Sections 501(a) and 501(c) (3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code and be organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, or for a combination of said purposes. In the alternative, upon dissolution of the Corporation, net assets other than trust funds shall be distributed to the California State University, Los Angeles.

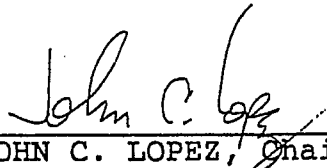

If, upon dissolution, this Corporation holds any assets in trust, such assets shall be disposed of in such manner as may be directed by decree of the Superior Court of the county in which this Corporation's principal office is located upon petition therefor by the Attorney General or by any person concerned in the liquidation. In no event shall any assets be distributed to any member, director, or officer of this Corporation.

3. The foregoing amendment of Articles of Incorporation has been duly approved by the Board of Directors.

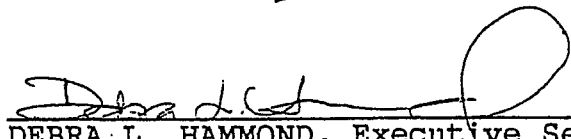

4. The Corporation has no members.

We further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the matters set forth in this certificate are true and correct of our own knowledge.

RESTATED ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
UNIVERSITY-STUDENT UNION BOARD, CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES

The undersigned certify that:

1. They are the Chair of the Board and the Secretary, respectively, of UNIVERSITY-STUDENT UNION BOARD, CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES, a California nonprofit corporation.
2. The Articles of Incorporation of this corporation are amended and restated to read as follows:

ONE: The name of the Corporation is UNIVERSITY-STUDENT UNION AT CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, LOS ANGELES.

TWO: This Corporation is a Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized under the nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purposes.

THREE: This Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this Corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of this Corporation, and the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law.

FOUR: The Corporation shall have no members as that term is defined in Section 5056 of the California Corporations Code, or in any successor statute thereto. Any Corporate action which would otherwise require approval by a majority of all members or approval by the members of the Corporation shall require only approval of the Board of Directors.

FIVE: a) No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall consist of lobbying or propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, except as provided in Section 501 (h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and this Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including publishing or distributing statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office except as otherwise provided in Section 501 (h) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

b) All Corporate property is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes set forth in Article THREE, above. No part of the net earnings of this Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any of its directors, trustees, officers, private shareholders, or to individuals.

c) Upon the winding up and dissolution of the Corporation after paying or adequately providing for the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the Corporation, all net assets, other than trust funds, shall be distributed to a successor approved by the President of California State University, Los Angeles, and by the Chancellor of The California State University. Such successor shall have tax-exempt status under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States internal revenue law) and under Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, or the corresponding section of any future California revenue and tax law.

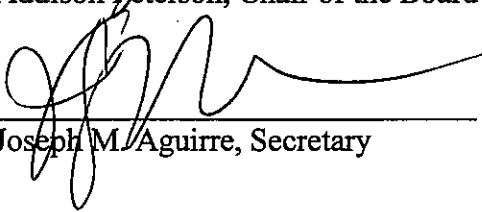

3. The foregoing amendment and restatement of Articles of Incorporation has been duly approved by the Board of Directors.
4. The corporation has no members.

We further declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the matters set forth in this certificate are true and correct of our own knowledge.
